PROCEDURE:

The procedure for calling up affiliate players will be as follows:

- Coach of the higher level team will contact the coach of the affiliated team and ask for a player(s) they would like to be made available to play:
- Affiliate team coach will then inform the higher level Coach if the player(s) are available and willing to play;
- If the player is available, then the affiliate coach makes the necessary arrangements with the player and confirms the availability of the player with the higher level coach:

- If the player is not available, then the process outlined above will repeat until a player(s) is confirmed. High School Restrictions:
- Any player in TAMHA playing on a Midget AAA, Midget AA or Midget A team can be called up to play High School with the a approval of the Association Coach, the President & HNS.
- In all cases, the Division rep must be kept in the loop on all affiliations. Please see Hockey Nova Scotia's affiliation rules under Regulation 6.
